Welcome to California Lutheran University

On behalf of the California Lutheran University Sports Information Department, we would like to welcome you to the 2007-2008 Thrivent Financial for Lutherans Basketball Tournament. The Kingsmen basketball team will host Bethany Lutheran (MN) College, Concordia University (WI) and Gettysburg (PA) College from December 29-30, 2007.

We would like to take this opportunity to thank the participating schools, players, coaches, support staff, managers and trainers who have traveled to join us for this event. We would also like to express our appreciation for all of the families, friends and fans who have traveled from near and far to show their support of these fine student-athletes as they play in the 2007-2008 Thrivent Financial for Lutherans Basketball Tournament.

Good luck to all the teams.

Sincerely,

Scott Chisholm
Sports Information Director

Our Sponsor

A special thank you goes out to the Thrivent Financial for Lutherans for sponsoring the 14th Annual Thrivent Financial for Lutherans Basketball Tournament at California Lutheran University.

Thrivent Financial for Lutherans®

Thrivent Financial will sponsor the four-team tournament including a banquet on Friday, December 28, 2007 from 11:45 am – 12:55 pm. The banquet will provide an opportunity for all of the players and coaches to meet each other prior to tip-off while they share a pre-tournament meal at the Lundring Events Center in the Gilbert Sports and Fitness Center.

2007-2008 SEASON PREVIEW

The California Lutheran University men's basketball team took big strides in returning to become one of the elite teams in the conference posting a 17-8, 10-4 SCIAC record to take second place. The Kingsmen return a host of familiar faces as experience will play a big role in the team's success this season.

Cal Lutheran Head Coach Rich Rider enters his 13th year at the helm of the Kingsmen basketball program after picking up his 200th victory at CLU and 100th SCIAC win this past season.

The senior captain pair of Deshion Inniss and Chad Acerboni returns nearly 18 points to go along with over six rebounds and seven assists per contest last season. Inniss, who earned a first-team All-SCIAC selection last year, ranked in the conference top-30 in scoring per game (9.3), second in assists per game (4.0) and second in free throw percentage (.846).

Acerboni also ranked in the top-30 in points per game (8.5), fourth in assists (3.2) and seventh in steals per game (1.72). Brandon Tussy rounds out the senior class, averaging 12.5 minutes per game while adding three points and two rebounds per game.

Kyle Knudsen brings his 16 starts and 23 minutes per game back this season. Shooting more than three-quarters of his shots beyond the three-point line, he managed to shoot over 45 percent for the season and drained 51 triples, averaging over eight points per game.

Sophomore Lucas Gums will also see his time on the court increase this season after knocking down more than half of his attempts and 43 percent of his three-pointers.

2007-2008 SEASON PREVIEW

The offensive production from the Bethany Lutheran men's basketball team is going to encompass a lot of people this season.

The bulk of last year's scoring was handled adroitly by Alfonso Mayfield, who averaged 20.6 points per game. This season, the challenge of replacing the three-time All-American will rest on a host of players, evident by a recent preseason exhibition against St. Mary's.

"We had eight guys between 17 and eight points," Coach Rick Jeddelloh said. "I think when we're playing our best is when we've got seven, eight or nine guys around the 10 to 12-point range."

One player counted on will be Amun Bordain, who is best known for his defense.

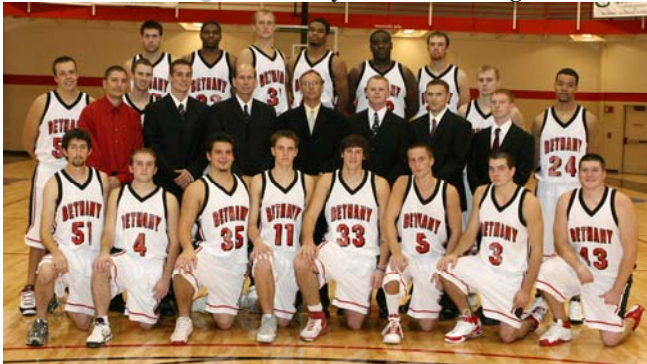

"I think I'm one of the better defenders on our team," he said. "I want to be in the game when we need a stop."

Bordain averaged 5.1, 4.2 and 3.0 points per game in each of his three previous seasons. Due to the departure of Mayfield, the senior is someone who could be counted on to pick up some production on the offensive end.

"He's probably our best post defender at 6-foot-2 because he's one of our strongest guys," Jeddelloh said.

"But what's hard for other teams is their big guys have to match up with him, and he's so athletic he can go right by them to the basket."

2007-2008 SEASON PREVIEW

The Concordia Falcons will be playing its second season in the Northern Athletics Conference. The Falcons are coming off a second straight 8 win season, filled with injuries and missed opportunities. With experience, depth, and a healthier lineup, the Falcons look to improve on the 2006-07 season which included 7 games lost by 4 or fewer points. A committed Falcon squad should be exciting for the CUW fans.

The Falcon coaching staff underwent a change over the summer with the resignation of Head Coach Wayne Rasmussen. Coach Shawn Cassidy assumed head coaching duties, taking over for his mentor and former coach. The Falcons return Assistants Adam Jones, Andrew Harmon, and Steve Schauer to the sidelines. Coach Cassidy also added the expertise of Assistant Coach Jon Cain, bringing 16 years of DI college coaching experience.

The Falcons return all five starters from the 2006-07 season. Senior Josh Atkinson, an All-Conference selection, looks to continue his strong play after leading the team in scoring (17.3ppg) and rebounding (6.8). Senior Steve Huenink continues to improve, coming off an outstanding 2006-07 season. Senior Travis Moulton, the team's floor captain, provides consistency and leadership while leading the team in assists (4.4), steals (4.4), and minutes (33.5).

2007-2008 SEASON PREVIEW

After closing the 2006-2007 season on a flurry, the Gettysburg College men's basketball team will look to carry its positive momentum into the 2007-2008 campaign.

After a tough start, Gettysburg went 11-4 and 7-2 down the stretch en route to a 13-13 season and a 10-8 mark in the Centennial Conference, good for a fourth place finish. With the return of three starters – who were also the team's top three scorers – from last season's team that reached the Centennial semifinals, Head Coach George Petrie is hoping his bullets can replicate their late-season surge early on in 2007-2008.

"One of the goals we've talked about is starting the season where we left off," said Petrie, who is 241-215 heading into his 19th season at Gettysburg. "The previous two years have been slow for us coming out of the gate, and we realize that can't happen this year."

The Bullets face a very challenging early-season schedule, with a potential match-up against Messiah College (19-7 in 2006-07) in its tip-off tournament followed by a date with York (PA) College, which finished 16-10 a year ago. Gettysburg then opens its Centennial Conference schedule by taking on a talented Dickinson College team followed by three straight meetings with 2006-07 Centennial playoff teams in Ursinus, conference champion Johns Hopkins, and Haverford.
